

REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

Report of the Committee's study visit to view structural roads maintenance sites in Maguiresbridge

Wednesday 2 December 2009

On Wednesday 2 December 2009, the Committee for Regional Development visited a number of structural roads maintenance sites in the vicinity of Maguiresbridge, County Fermanagh.

Members met with Pat Doherty and Sam Webb of Roads Service at the Killyhevlin Hotel at 09:30am and travelled on to Maguiresbridge.

During this visit Roads Service officials explained the typical characteristics of roads in need of structural maintenance.

Members also visited a site to view structural maintenance work in action.

Members returned to the Killyhevlin Hotel and, at 10:45am, held a meeting about the economic impact of expenditure on structural roads maintenance. The Committee left the Killyhevlin Hotel at 12:30pm and was back in Parliament Buildings in time for Members to attend afternoon committee meetings.

The Committee would like to thank everyone who so warmly welcomed and assisted it on its recent visit.
