FOREWORD

2011 and onward is going to throw up many challenges for Government, Statutory and Voluntary Bodies.

The new Coalition Government have 'Building the Big Society' which is about culture change where people feel powerful enough to help themselves and their communities.

The N.I. Audit Office Comptroller and Auditor General Kieran Donnelly stated "the Voluntary and Community Sector makes a significant contribution to the achievement of the Executive's Strategic Goals and Priorities" (Ref Report titled 'Creating Effective Partnerships between Government and the Voluntary and Community Sector.')

N.I.H.E. in their 10th Annual Report to the Equality Commission, stated "Building a Stronger Community – we recognise and plan our part in tackling issues beyond the physical condition of homes. Our housing work is equally focused on relationships within and between communities, safe communities and inclusive communities."

D.S.D. Housing Division's objective is 'Building Communities, Tackling Disadvantage and Encouraging Social Responsibility.'

S.C.N.I. have reviewed the following in line with Stakeholders, in particular, our 2 core funders, N.I.H.E. and D.S.D. Housing Division's Aims and Objectives:

- Mission Statement
- Vision Statement
- Principles
- Aims and Objectives

This Strategic Plan (2011-2014) seeks to further develop resident involvement over the next 3 years in line with Social Housing Providers who want to develop and enhance community involvement.

S.C.N.I. provide a unique service to our customers, funders and partners, especially as housing providers are now actively moving from Resident Monitoring Services to a more scrutinising role.

Although resident involvement is not new, how and why Social Providers involve their residents now have an increasing influence in design, delivery and assessment of services and the performance of providers. This approach is supported by the new Regulator's Framework in England and in N. Ireland we aim to be a co-regulator with social housing providers who wish to have active participation.

S.C.N.I. will continue to 'Help Communities Help Themselves'
