

I am particularly interested in the sustainability of free transport for older people and rural transport in general. There are a wide range of access issues compounded by the fact that concessionary passes are not accepted on community and rural transport schemes.